English Curriculum: Reading

Word Reading Comprehension

Pupils should be able to read all common graphemes, and should be able to read unfamiliar words containing these graphemes, accurately and without undue hesitation, by sounding them out in books that are matched closely to each pupil's level of word reading.

Be able to read many common words containing GPCs taught so far, such as shout, hand, stop, or dream, without needing to blend the sounds out loud first.

Pupils' reading of common exception words, such as you, could, many, or people, should be secure this will increase their fluency by being able to read these words easily and automatically.

Pupils should be able to retell some familiar stories that have been read to and discussed with them or that they have acted out during Year 1.

Continue to focus on establishing pupils' accurate and speedy word reading skills.

Pupils should listen to and discuss a wide range of stories, poems, plays and information books; this should include whole books.

Pupils can read well and do so frequently, they will be able to increase their vocabulary, comprehension and their knowledge across the wider curriculum.
